PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Spring riders are indispensable in parks. Users can control the whole game with hand, foot, and body movements. They will be pleased with the bouncer's counter-reaction to their show of strength. Not only will it be fun, but they will also learn the pattern between their bodies and their movements and will strengthen this connection over time.

The Circle is designed for standing and used by multiple users. While allowing users to feel the physical pressure on their legs, it aims to enable them to balance and stay in balance without hand contact.
