PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Spring riders are indispensable in parks. children; can control the whole game with their hands, feet, and body movements. To their show of strength, they'll be happy with the bouncer's counter-reaction. Not only will it be fun, but they will also learn the pattern between their bodies and their movements and will strengthen this connection over time.

Designed for the user to use while standing, Windsurfing allows the user to feel the physical pressure on the legs of the user while encouraging the user to push the limits of balance.
